

SMT. TRIPTI MUKHERJEE

Smt. Tripti Mukherjee is a famous artist of Kantha Stich embroidery.

2. Born on 28th April, 1966, Smt. Mukherjee exhibited creativity par excellence since her childhood. As expected, she started to show her creative bent for Kantha stitch. Drawing inspiration from her mother's works, she started to try her hands on with fabric and thread and in no time, it turned into her only passion. Every piece that she has created to date speaks of her cultural past. Her knowledge of 37 years' experience and gives a preview of her future. She has created income opportunities for rural women with the help of her knowledge. She has taught many batches of women helping them start their own sewing work.

3. Smt. Mukherjee has set up a training center in Suri where she teaches the local marginalized women the art of kantha stitch saree embroidery and making various types of wall hangings bed sheets stoles and dupattas. By showcasing their handicrafts in various government sponsored exhibitions and melas they can even make money as and when their products are sold.

4. Smt. Mukherjee teaches the local marginalized women the art of kantha stitch saree embroidery and making various types of wall hangings, bed sheets, stoles and dupattas. Showcasing their handicrafts in various government sponsored exhibitions and melas provides regular income to the women who were previously unemployed or in jobs with harder work and lower pay.

5. In February 2017, Smt. Mukherjee visited Birmingham, U.K to represent West Bengal. This project was sponsored by the Government of India. Along with showcasing her own work she also demonstrated how the art is done for the participants. This initiative was highly applauded in Birmingham. This added one more feather to her cap. She visited Tokyo, Japan to represent India for live demonstration and promotion of Indian handicrafts. This project was organized by Export Promotion Council for Handicrafts, Ministry of Textiles, Government of India at 14th India Trend fair from 23 July to 25 July, 2025. There she achieved the certificate from Embassy of India, Tokyo Japan. Last year, she presented as a resource person for Interaction with Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Shri Narendra Modi at the event of Craft Demonstration Cum Awareness Programme Bharat TEX 2025, at Bharat Mandapam, Pragati Maidan, New Delhi.

6. Smt. Mukherjee is the recipient of numerous awards and honours such as National Award Certificate in 2010 and Shilp Guru Award in 2016 by the Ministry of Textiles, Government of India. Her work has also been acknowledged by the Government of West Bengal by conferring on her Bangashree Award in 2017.